Description:

From School Library Journal Grade 3-7 Another welcome addition to the series of chapter-length mysteries starring ten-year-old detective Encyclopedia Brown. The book's format is the same as the rest of the series: each chapter is a complete case (there are ten here), solved by Encyclopedia Brown and left for readers to decipher. The solutions and reasoning used in each case are explained in the back of the book. These mini-mysteries are great because of the shortness of each case, and the solve-it-yourself format draws even reluctant readers to them. Gayle D. Celizic, Roosevelt School, Euclid, Ohio

From the Publisher Suspects who are identical twins...

A leaking tent...

Magical worm pills...

A zebra's portrait...

And a sheet of toilet paper from Spain that's been swiped!

These are just some of the ten brain-twisting mysteries that Encyclopedia Brown must solve by using his famous computerlike brain. Try crack the cases along with him--the answer to all the mysteries are found in the back! --This text refers to the edition.
